

Senior Fire Specialist/Environmental(Job Number: 00013629)

Description

Senior Fire Specialist/Environmental

Real Pride, Real Advantage

An exciting opportunity has arisen to join BAE Systems as a Senior Fire Specialist/Environmental based in Riyadh. This position offers the chance to continue to use your hard earned skills to secure a comfortable and rewarding lifestyle for you and your family. Together with a tax-free salary you will enjoy a considerable range of benefits including rent-free accommodation.

For accompanied personnel free schooling is provided for up to two dependent children or alternatively an allowance is paid for children in full-time boarding school education. You will be entitled to join the company pension scheme. Free health care in Kingdom is also provided together with an exceptional range of leisure facilities. Moreover, Saudi Arabia stands at one of the world's crossroads providing the opportunity of a lifetime to use your generous leave and flight allowances to explore new horizons.

As a Senior Fire Specialist/Environmental your main responsibilities will involve:

- Primary Focal Point for all matters relating to RSAF Fire Protection and Safety Programs
- Ensure all aspects of programs are fully defined to ensure that RSAF requirements are achieved in accordance with RSAF Policies & Procedures, National Fire Protection Association (NFPA) Codes and Standards, Internal Civil Aviation Organisation (ICAO), and the International Fire Service Training Association (IFSTA) Curriculums
- Principal point of contact for RSAF-HQ, MODSAP, USMTM and private companies in respect of programs and proposals, negotiations, and their implementation, whilst ensuring all relevant information is reported to RSAF-HQ Director of Safety/Fire Protection
- Co-ordinate and review the progress of technical submissions, Statements of Work for Fire Protection Projects within the RSAF requirement

As a Senior Fire Specialist/Environmental your skills and qualifications will ideally include:

- Extensive experience as a service Fire Officer in a Civil or Military airport/airfield, the last 5 years being in a significant fire service managerial position.
- Hold Aerodrome Fire Office (NFPA 1021 Fire Office IV or equivalent) certificate
- Sound knowledge of military fire training process, strategies and tactics
- Sound knowledge of airfield categorization policies with regards to fire and rescue requirements in accordance with ICAO, NFPA or equivalent.
- Fully conversant with fire protection concepts of maintainability using International References
- Comprehensive knowledge of fire service maintenance and engineering practices
- Capable of monitoring training deliver, training output, instruct and assess other instructors
- Knowledge of the practical experience in project management and budgetary preparation
- Able to think strategically and communication a strategy/vision effectively and lead a team towards goals and objectives

- Communication skills must include excellent writing capabilities, be computer literate with a knowledge of Microsoft Office Suite (Word, Excel and Powerpoint)

Grade: 4

BAE Systems

BAE Systems is a global defence and security company with approximately 100,000 employees worldwide. The Company delivers a full range of products and services for air, land and naval forces, as well as advanced electronics, security, information technology solutions and support services. In 2009 BAE Systems reported sales of £22.4 billion (US$36.2 billion).

All appointments in Saudi Arabia are subject to receipt of all necessary Government and/or Customer approvals.

Whilst this opportunity is open to all BAE Systems employees, applications from BAE Systems employees currently affected by existing job loss programmes will be afforded priority.